

FAQ for Air Canada Vacations Customers COVID-19 Coverage and Assistance Plan August 31, 2020

As borders and travel destinations start to open up, you can explore with confidence knowing you're covered for emergency medical and quarantine costs related to COVID-19 while travelling. Air Canada Vacations, together with Allianz Global Assistance, a leading travel assistance provider, is pleased to include the coverage as part of your vacation package for eligible travellers purchased on or after August 31, 2020 to applicable destinations.

General questions

1. What is the COVID-19 Coverage and Assistance Plan?

The COVID-19 Coverage and Assistance Plan is insurance that covers emergency medical and quarantine expenses if COVID-19 is contracted while travelling. This plan is available to eligible customers of Air Canada Vacations who book a flight plus hotel package to applicable destinations in the Caribbean and Mexico. It does not include cruise packages. Consult the full list of applicable destinations.

Please ensure you read through the terms and conditions of coverage, which are set out in the Certificate of Insurance to understand what is covered and more importantly, what is not covered.

2. How do Government of Canada travel advisories apply to the COVID-19 Coverage and Assistance Plan?

At time of publication, the Government of Canada has issued a Level 3 advisory to avoid all non-essential travel outside of Canada. The COVID-19 Coverage and Assistance Plan will respond even if the Level 3 advisory is still in place for your destination on your date of departure.

We are committed to your safe travel. We will continue to monitor these advisories to ensure that our destinations take the Canadian Government advisories and security regulations into consideration. Travel is a personal decision for everyone, and we encourage you to do your own research before leaving the country. Our Air Canada Vacations travel experts are here to help if you have any questions. Give us a call toll-free at 1-866-529-2079.

The COVID-19 Coverage and Assistance Plan does not cover everything. All claims will be reviewed on an individual basis, and will remain subject to the terms, conditions and exclusions of the insurance Certificate and Policy. For complete terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions, please refer to the insurance Certificate. All benefits described are underwritten by CUMIS General Insurance Company ("CUMIS") under Group Policy No FC330001 ("Policy") issued to Touram General Partner Inc. doing business as Air Canada Vacations (the "Policyholder"), and administered by Allianz Global Assistance, a registered business name of AZGA Service Canada Inc.

3. How do I get the COVID-19 Coverage and Assistance Plan?

The COVID-19 Coverage and Assistance Plan will be included with Air Canada Vacations packages purchased on or after August 31, 2020 for travel to applicable destinations between September 4, 2020 to April 30, 2021. Book your vacation package on the Air Canada Vacations website, through the Air Canada Vacations Contact Centre, or via one of our partner Travel Agents.

You are eligible for coverage provided you:

- h. are not a resident of Saskatchewan – this coverage is not available to residents of Saskatchewan.

For full details on terms, conditions and exclusions, please review the Certificate of Insurance.

4. How much does it cost?

There is no additional cost to you. Air Canada Vacations will cover the cost of the insurance premium. The COVID-19 Plan is included with your Air Canada Vacations package purchased on or after August 31, 2020 for travel to applicable destinations between September 4, 2020 to April 30, 2021 to applicable destinations.

5. When can I get this plan and how long is it available?

The COVID-19 Plan administered by Allianz Global Assistance is included with your Air Canada Vacations package booked on or after August 31, 2020 for travel between September 4 to April 30, 2021 to applicable destinations. Once you have booked an eligible trip, and received the COVID-19 Plan, coverage (as outlined on your insurance certificate) will be available to you on your departure date.

As the situation with COVID-19 evolves, the COVID-19 Coverage & Assistance Plan and its offerings may change for new bookings, included but not limited to, adding new destinations, removing destinations, or adjusting COVID-19 Plan benefits. Please check your insurance certificate for coverage details applicable to you as of the date of vacation purchase. For the most up to date information please visit our website.

The COVID-19 Coverage and Assistance Plan does not cover everything. All claims will be reviewed on an individual basis, and will remain subject to the terms, conditions and exclusions of the insurance Certificate and Policy. For complete terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions, please refer to the insurance Certificate. All benefits described are underwritten by CUMIS General Insurance Company ("CUMIS") under Group Policy No FC330001 ("Policy") issued to Touram General Partner Inc. doing business as Air Canada Vacations (the "Policyholder"), and administered by Allianz Global Assistance, a registered business name of AZGA Service Canada Inc.

6. I'm booked to travel after September 4th, but I made my booking prior to August 31st. Will I get the COVID-19 Plan?

The COVID-19 plan will be included on flight plus hotel bookings to applicable destinations in the Caribbean and Mexico made on or after August 31, 2020.

If you booked between August 28 and August 30, 2020, talk to an Air Canada Vacations expert at Toll-free at 1-866-529-2079.

7. Can I get COVID-19 coverage if I purchase a flight through Air Canada directly?

No, the COVID-19 Plan administered by Allianz Global Assistance is only available with Air Canada Vacations flight plus hotel packages to destinations to the Caribbean and Mexico. The COVID-19 Coverage and Assistance Plan cannot be purchased on single flights; and is not available as a 'standalone' insurance policy. For information on Air Canada flights, please visit aircanada.com.

8. Can I travel anywhere in the world with this coverage?

No. Coverage will only be included on Air Canada Vacations to applicable destinations in the Caribbean and Mexico. It does not include cruise packages. Consult the full list of applicable destinations. Please check with your Air Canada Vacations expert toll-free at 1-866-529-2079 when booking your trip if you have any questions.

9. How do I qualify / apply for this coverage?

This coverage is for eligible customers booking a qualifying vacation package with Air Canada Vacations on or after August 31, 2020.

As the situation with COVID-19 evolves, the COVID-19 Coverage & Assistance Plan and its offerings may change for new bookings, included but not limited to adding new destinations, removing destinations, or adjusting COVID-19 Plan benefits. Please check your insurance certificate for coverage details applicable to you as of the date of vacation purchase. For the most up to date information please visit our website.

10. If I buy a vacation package, how will I know I have the COVID-19 Plan?

The certificate of insurance will be included in your Air Canada Vacations itinerary. The certificate of insurance details the terms and conditions, exclusions and limitations and emergency contact information.

11. What if I have a medical emergency not related to COVID-19 while travelling?

This plan is for COVID-19 related medical expenses only and does not provide full emergency medical travel insurance coverage.

12. What if I already have travel insurance?

This plan is for COVID-19 related medical expenses only, and your travel insurance should offer protection for other non-COVID-19 emergency related expenses as well as Trip Cancellation and Interruption. Be sure to contact your travel insurance provider to ask how your policy will respond if you travel during a Government of Canada issued travel advisory. We recommend that you read your travel insurance policy to fully understand the benefits, what is covered and what is not covered. This plan would be second payer to any plans that cover COVID-19.

13. Can I use Aeroplan or my future travel credits to pay for the Vacation Package and still get the COVID-19 Plan?

Yes!

16. How long can I travel with the COVID-19 Plan?

This coverage will only be available on itineraries for trips up to 21 days in length.

Coverage starts on the later of:

- the date shown as the departure date on your travel itinerary; or
- the date you actually depart for your trip.

Coverage ends on the earliest of:

- the date the you are no longer eligible for coverage;
- the date indicated as the return date on your travel itinerary; or
- the 21st day of your trip; or the date and time you return to your province or territory of residence

17. Can I buy an extension if my trip is longer than 21 days?

No. Maximum trip length is 21 days for any one trip.

18. What happens if I contract COVID-19 before I leave on my trip?

This plan is limited to emergency medical and quarantine expenses related to COVID-19 while you are travelling. Please call your Air Canada Vacations travel expert with any questions about additional coverage you need, including Trip Cancellation.

19. I have a pre-existing condition. How does the COVID-19 Plan work for me?

The only pre-existing condition exclusion under the COVID-19 Plan is if you have exhibited signs or symptoms fourteen (14) days before travelling or tested positive for COVID-19 within thirty (30) days before your departure date.

20. What are the exclusions in the COVID-19 Plan?

The COVID-19 Plan has several exclusions which you should be aware – they can be found on page 6 of the insurance certificate. Please ensure you read through the terms and conditions of coverage, which are set out in the certificate of insurance to understand these exclusions, what is covered and more importantly, what is not covered.

21. Why do you need to review my medical records?

As part of the usual claims review, Allianz Global Assistance may need to request your medical records to ensure you had no signs or symptoms of COVID-19 fourteen (14) days before travelling, or tested positive for COVID-19 thirty (30) days before leaving on your trip.

The COVID-19 Coverage and Assistance Plan does not cover everything. All claims will be reviewed on an individual basis, and will remain subject to the terms, conditions and exclusions of the insurance Certificate and Policy. For complete terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions, please refer to the insurance Certificate. All benefits described are underwritten by CUMIS General Insurance Company ("CUMIS") under Group Policy No FC330001 ("Policy") issued to Touram General Partner Inc. doing business as Air Canada Vacations (the "Policyholder"), and administered by Allianz Global Assistance, a registered business name of AZGA Service Canada Inc.

22. Is the cost of my COVID-19 test covered while I'm at my destination?

Your COVID-19 test will be covered if you test positive and you have an eligible quarantine or medical expense as a result. Elective COVID-19 tests will not be covered.

23. Under Specific Conditions in the policy wording, what does the maximum amount payable of $2.5 million mean?

In the rare event that many passengers on a single flight test positive for, and contract COVID-19, Allianz Global Assistance will pay up to a maximum of $2.5 million in total which will be distributed between every eligible passenger who submitted a claim for COVID-19 quarantine or medical expenses on the flight.
